

Pittsburgh Grabs the Gold

Over 250 people attended the Healthy Active Living Spring Games awards celebration June 3, at Riverview Park. The awards wrapped up the Celebration of Older American's Month at Pittsburgh's 14 Healthy Active Living Centers. Lawrenceville Center Director Kerm McIntosh (left) and Greenfield Center Director Donna Rengers (right) display the first Gold Medals ever earned by non-participants. The Gold Medals were awarded by Parks and Recreation Community Services Director Dick Skinjar (center) to Kerm and Donna for their outstanding work as co-chairs of the Games and the Outdoor Awards Celebration at Riverview Park. 147 Individuals earned 383 Gold, Silver and Bronze medals in the games. It was all part of the City's Annual Celebration of National Older American's Month. 60,580 people born before 1954 participated in activities during May at the 14 Pittsburgh Community Healthy Active Living Centers.
