

MOVEPGH

AUGUST 2012

Community Workshop #4

MOVEPGH Community Workshop #4 is focused on transportation issues in Pittsburgh's East End neighborhoods. This large area includes all the neighborhoods between the rivers (except for Downtown/Lower Hill and the riverfronts). The workshop is open to the public – even if you do not live in these areas. Join the MOVEPGH team to discuss walkability, highways, transit, bicycling, and more. Full details can be found at www.planpgh.com/movepgh.

Neighborhood Biking & Walking Audits:

Resident input is needed! Join us for walking and biking audits as we tour East End neighborhoods. This is your chance to take a walk or ride a bike with your neighbors and engage in discussion that improves the City's pedestrian and bicycle friendliness. Tours will begin at the East Liberty Carnegie Library and will canvass adjacent neighborhoods.

There are five times to choose from!

- Sunday, August 5 4:00PM
- Monday, August 6 12:00PM
- Monday, August 6 6:00PM
- Tuesday, August 7 12:00PM
- Tuesday, August 7 6:00PM
