Council President Harris Announces Start of Proactive Refund Effort

Payback of Unclaimed Funds from 2008 begins today

(Pittsburgh, PA) For the third year in a row City Council President Harris is leading the effort to refund thousands of dollars, owed by the city, to area residents. Nearly 900 people are owed money by the City of Pittsburgh, in amounts ranging from $1 to $6,500. Residents have until February 15, 2014 to claim these funds.

The list of people owed money is posted on the District 1 City Council web page at <http://pittsburghpa.gov/district1/>. If your name appears on the list, contact Council President Harris' office at 412-255-2135.

Unclaimed money will, by law, be returned to the state of PA. For the third year in a row, Councilwoman Darlene Harris is spear heading a proactive effort to return this money to its rightful owners.
