

WHEREAS, Future City is a competition that challenges students to imagine, design and build the cities of the future; and

WHEREAS, students from three dozen middle schools across the region gathered at Carnegie Music Hall on January 18th for Pittsburgh's 15th annual Future City competition where the theme was "transportation;" and

WHEREAS, St. Bede School, located in Point Breeze, has been an important part of the Pittsburgh community since its establishment in 1922; and

WHEREAS, the location of the school and the strong commitment within the community and parish to Catholic education has contributed to the development of a diverse faith-filled elementary school; and

WHEREAS, St. Bede won first place in the Pittsburgh Regional Future City Competition at Carnegie Music Hall, competing against more than 40 schools from the region; and

WHEREAS, St. Bede students are headed to the National Future City competition in Washington DC.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby recognize the students of St. Bede School for their accomplishment as winners of the Pittsburgh Regional Future City Competition, and wish them luck and support in the national Future City competition.

Sponsored by Councilman Dan Gilman

Co-sponsored by Council President Bruce Kraus, Councilmembers Deb Gross, Darlene M. Harris, Theresa Kail-Smith, Natalia Rudiak, Corey O'Connor, R. Daniel Lavelle, and Rev. Ricky V. Burgess

Bruce Kraus
President of Council

Attest: Linda Johnson-Wasler
Clerk of Council

In Council, February 11, 2014