COMING THIS FALL

CITY-COUNTY BUILDING HOSTS GINGERBREAD HOUSE DISPLAY

A beloved Pittsburgh tradition has a new home! Kick off the holiday season on Light Up Night (Friday, November 22) at the City-County Building for a family-friendly evening of tree lighting festivities including music, refreshments, tours of the historic building’s State Rooms and archival vault – and the unveiling of hundreds of delicious dwellings built of gingerbread.

After 16 dazzling years at Highwoods Properties’ PPG Wintergarden, the City’s annual Gingerbread House Display & Competition will move to the grand lobby of the City-County Building and remain on display until early January. Visit www.pittsburghpa.gov/events this fall to learn how to enter this exciting competition open to individuals, organizations, students and chefs.

Holiday celebrations last all season at City Hall! Keep an eye out in December for the City of Pittsburgh’s annual Menorah Lighting held in partnership with Chabad of Pittsburgh. Enjoy a fun family experience featuring the Yeshiva Boys Choir, music and refreshments at the City-County Building.
