PENN AVENUE

FOR LEASE * OFFICE / COMMERCIAL

Thanks to the success and expansion of Google in Pittsburgh technology jobs are coming in faster than available space. Phase II of the successful mixed-use Bakery Square development will provide this much needed office space for growing tenants like Google, UPMC, Veterans Administration and the University of Pittsburgh.

Other companies looking for space in the near future will also be accommodated, since the Oakland and University/Medical Center office market has the lowest vacancy rates in the region and the most exponential growth rate.
