

Mayor Peduto Invites you to the City of Pittsburgh's Capital Budget Deliberative Forums

Help Develop the City's 2017 Capital Budget

This year, residents of Pittsburgh have a new way to provide their input on the City's 2017 Capital Budget.

The City is hosting Deliberative Forums on the Capital Budget to provide a more robust way for residents to share ideas on 2017 budget priorities. At these forums, neighbors will have a chance to learn about the budget and add community voices to the budgeting process as they engage with each other, community leaders, and city officials. Forums are open to every resident of Pittsburgh.

Tuesday, June 21	6:00-8:30 PM	Marshall-Shadeland/Northside Letter Carrier's Union Hall 841 California Ave, 15212
Thursday, June 23	6:00-8:30 PM	East Liberty Kingsley Association 6435 Frankstown Ave, 15206

---

Each session will include:

- a brief overview of the budgeting process,
- small-group discussions of budget priorities and residents' needs
- an opportunity for residents to ask questions of an expert panel.

At the end of each forum, residents will complete a survey--adding their ideas and opinions to the budgeting process.

We ask all participants to commit to the entire 2.5 hours of the forum. Refreshments will be provided. To make sure we order enough for everyone, we ask that residents pre-register here: <http://pittsburghpa.gov/omb/capitalbudget> or call Community Affairs at 412-255-4773 (walk-in registration will be available on the day of the forum).
