Meet The Masters Henri Rousseau

Henri Rousseau was a French painter born in 1844. Rousseau is mostly known for his richly colored and detailed paintings of lush jungles with wild beasts and exotic flowers - however he never left France. He taught himself how to paint and did not follow the styles of painting that were popular at the time.

When Rousseau painted the tiger to the right, people were shocked because they had never seen anything like it. Can you color in the style of Henri Rousseau?
