VOLUNTEER TOOLKIT

How to organize a clean-up event

- Best practices for creation, recruitment, and execution

How Public Works can help

- Partnering with the City for best results

Volunteer Application

- Making sure everything is on the up-and-up

The "Who, What, When, & Where?"

- Choose what day event takes place-and a rain date if needed
- Make it during daylight hours with clear start and stop times
- Select a location that is easy to find and easy to congregate
- Choose clear and attainable goals of what needs to be accomplished
- Make point of contact known and accessible

People want to help, so let them know!

- Speak at local neighborhood meetings or events
- Share your event using social media, like Facebook, Twitter, Nextdoor, or PittsburghCares.org
- Contact papers to let them know of volunteer opportunities for local residents
- Ask local businesses to hang fliers in windows -but be wary of posting outside as it can just become more litter

Who's bringing what?

- Figure out what supplies might be needed beforehand
- Decide if any food or drinks will be provided. Many times local businesses may donate for volunteer efforts in their area
- Water, at the very least, is always a good idea

Safety First

- Verbally go over potential safety hazards at event location with volunteers
- Never reach for anything you can't see
- Stay out of roads
- Wear brightly colored clothing for visibility
- Stay hydrated

Divide and Conquer

- Make sure all volunteers sign the sign in sheets and waivers
- Have multiple tasks ready for assignment
- Announce each task and ask who would like to work it in order to cover all responsibilities as needed

A Job Well Done

- Remove any signs or fliers placed for clean up
