

Instructions for Use

Map Layers

The layers in the map are listed under the content tab on the left side of the screen  Content

Map Layers include the following:

- Curb Box Inspection Service Line Material- Public/Private: Provides the water service line material observed during a camera inspection at the curb box
- Historical Records Service Line Material- Public/Private: Provides the water service line material identified during review of historical record documents
- 2018 and 2019 Planned Lead Service Line Replacement Areas: Identifies areas where lead service line replacements are planned in 2018 or 2019 with the following color:
- PWSA Water Service Area: Identifies currently defined limits of the PWSA water service area with the following color:
- Pittsburgh City Boundary: Identifies the city boundary as provided by the City of Pittsburgh GIS Division

Display Results Window

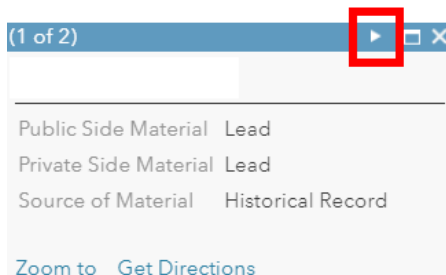

To display the water service line material information available for a property, click on the circle symbol in the map.

If there is more than one set of results available for a specific property, the number will be reflected in the top left corner of the window:

The following window will open:

To open additional results, click the arrow in the top right corner of the window:

Display Legend

To display the map legend, which will identify the symbols displayed at the current map scale, click the Legend button in the top left corner

Display Basemap

To change the map background, click on the Basemap button in the top left corner, then click on the preferred option.

