

WHAT DOESN'T REQUIRE A ZONING & DEVELOPMENT REVIEW APPLICATION?

Please note: In local historic districts and on locally designated historic structures, a Zoning and Development Review Application and a Historic Review Application is required for all exterior work. For more information, please visit <https://pittsburghpa.gov/dcp/hrc> or email sharon.spooner@pittsburghpa.gov.

- Interior renovation only with no change of use
- Residential (one and two family) windows, doors, siding, roofing, or masonry work
- Repairs to existing residential (one and two family) decks, porches, or open outside stairs with Record of Zoning Approval (ROZA), Certificate of Occupancy, and/or constructed as part of primary structure
- Residential accessory structures used as tool and storage sheds, playhouses, and similar uses 120 square feet or less
- Retaining walls less than 4 feet tall, measured from the lowest level of grade to the top of the wall
- Chicken coops
- Pre-fab above ground swimming pools less than 24 inches deep
- Sidewalks and driveways not more than 30 inches above adjacent grade
- Painting, papering, tiling, carpeting, cabinets, countertops, and similar finish work
- Demolition (except where Zoning or Historic Review approval requirements)

Please note:

- Any addition of square footage requires a Zoning and Development Review Application.
- Setbacks still apply for structures such as sheds, chicken coops, and swimming pools, based on zoning district. For questions, please contact zoning@pittsburghpa.gov.
- Residential is one and two family only. Commercial permits are required for mixed-use structures and for residential uses of three family and above.
- Filing online at OneStopPGH is recommended: however, when filing paper applications, Residential (one and two family) and Commercial are now separate forms.
